Virtual CLE: The POWER Act

Tuesday, September 28, 2021 • 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM CT • Zoom

The Pro Bono Work to Empower and Represent Act of 2018 (POWER Act) helps survivors of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking gain access to pro bono legal services. It requires the chief judge for each judicial district to conduct public events to promote pro bono legal services.

On September 28, 2021, in partnership with Palomar, the United States Attorney's office, and the Northern/Eastern Oklahoma Chapter of the Federal Bar Association, the FBA-OKC will provide an overview of Project Safe Neighborhoods, Palomar's Legal Network, and Domestic Violence and Expert Witness Testimony

- Presenters: Robert Troester, Acting U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Oklahoma
Lori Hines, Deputy Chief Criminal Division, U.S. Attorney's Office for the Western District of Oklahoma
Kelly Masters-Newton, Legal Director Palomar Family Justice Center
Lauren Gardner
